

Steven Tyler & Dirico Motorcycles at Sturgis

June 4th, 2009 by admin | Posted in Motorcycle News

Dirico Motorcycles USA, the brand of Steven Tyler's inspiration and Mark Dirico's innovation, will be appearing at the 2009 Sturgis Bike Week. Plus, rocker Tyler himself will be there performing with Aerosmith, the official band of the event.

Steven Tyler will be 'Living on the Edge' with his Dirico Motorcycles when Aerosmith headlines the 2009 Sturgis Bike Week.

Music innovator Steven Tyler and master inventor Mark Dirico have merged their art forms to create Dirico Motorcycles, USA. Designed and hand built for seamless function, Dirico motorcycles are statements of craftsmanship, style, detail, and innovation, expressed through modern-age components assembled with old-world skill. They connect with the owner through their lines and inspire the rider through their performance. See them in person at Sturgis.

Dirico Motorcycles USA will be displaying bikes at the 7th Annual Metzeler Bike contest on Tuesday, August 4, at Buffalo