Sucker Punch Sally's New Taste

Published by Cyril Huze July 6th, 2008 in Accessories, Builders, Customs and Editorial.

During Sturgis “Sucker Punch Sally” is going to host a Bike Giveaway at the legendary Buffalo Chip. The reason or the pretext? The Launch of 2 drinks: a “Sucker Punch Original Octane” energy drink and a “Punch Shine” classic 120-proof moonshine! Wow! I would have thought that Sucker Punch Sally would launch first...a Punch drink. Anyway, the launch and celebration will happen from August 4 to 7 at SPS’s trailer located at the infield of the Buffalo Chip. Sturgis attendees can register for a chance to win the SPS Custom Bike that the crew is building. The SPS crew will also be handing out samples of Original Octane at their trailer throughout bike week. The Original Octane Motorcycle will be given away Thursday, Aug. 7 live onstage at the Buffalo Chip, and the winner must be present at the Buffalo Chip Friday, Aug. 8 to claim his or her prize. Sucker Punch Sally.
