

Spectro Oils Named Official Oil

Sucker Punch Sally's Name Spectro Oils Their Brand Of Choice.

Spectro Oils of America announces its newest partnership with Sucker Punch Sally's. "A motorcycle is only as good as the sum of its parts, right down to the quality of fuel and lubricants used," said Christian Clayton, president of Sucker Punch Sally's. "We take pride in building great-looking, ride-able bikes, and by using a premium product like Spectro Oil, we'll help our customers maintain their motorcycle's performance so they spend more time on the road and less time in the shop." "Their extensive line of products is custom-tailored to help motorcyclists keep their bikes in top performance condition. No matter what type of motorcycle or how many miles it has logged, Spectro Oil's unique blends help ensure a quieter, smoother ride" finished Clayton.

Spectro products span the full range of fully-synthetic, semi-synthetic and petroleum lubricants for all classes of "powersports" engine and transmission applications. The Spectro line also includes a wide range of suspension fluids, fork oils, brake fluids, coolant, chain lubes/waxes, filter cleaners and oils and protection/appearance products, all of which will be available through Sucker Punch Sally's dealers nationwide.
