

Sucker Punch Launches Three New Bikes at the V-Twin Expo In Cincinnati, OH

One, dubbed "The Workingman", is very similar to The Traditional, but with a DNA Springer, Ultima transmission and solid color paint all for $18995 and $1000 dealer incentive rebate program, so it will retail at $17995.

The second bike to debut at V-Twin was a Sucker Punch Sally's Sportster™ frame that has been built out in the Sucker Punch Sally's old school racer style. It features an S&S 100 inch Sportster™ motor and numerous custom Sucker Punch Sally's parts. Also seen was the Triumph Thruxton that SPS customized for Fender Guitars. It features a Sara Ray paint job and a café racer feel.

In addition Sucker Punch Sally's unveiled their two new bikes "Love" and "Hate". These are two prototype production bikes that are sure to turn heads. They will be offered on a limited basis through their dealer network with the idea being that some people want a full-blown production custom. These two bikes, designed by Ami James and Christian Clayton, are sure to be a hit. Christian and Ami will be making appearances across the country at selected Sucker Punch Sally's dealerships. The Love Hate bikes will feature custom frames, custom cast parts, custom cut billet wheels and the new 360 Brakes.

Sucker Punch Sally's was also proud to be a part of the Limp Nickie booth and will have parts listed in their new cooperative catalogue.
