Published by Cyril Huze February 17th, 2009 in Builders, Customs, Editorial and Events.

The Seminole Hard Rock Roadhouse will return to the Doghouse Bar and Grill on Main Street in Daytona. In keeping with The Doghouses' reputation as "the place to party in Daytona," this year's Seminole Hard Rock Roadhouse line-up will feature some of the industry's best custom bikes, builders, and special events. In addition the Doghouse main stage will feature nightly live music with a special one-night appearance of Confederate Railroad on Wednesday March 4th.

The Seminole Hard Rock Roadhouse wouldn't be complete without top name custom bike builders and their bikes. Christian Clayton has teamed up with Ami James of Miami Ink to produce a limited amount of Love Hate Choppers. The two prototype production models, "Love" and "Hate" will be making their first public debut only at the Seminole Hard Rock Roadhouse.

New this year, some builders were given a similar Fender guitar to customize them in any way they saw fit. These Hard Rock Fender guitars will be auctioned live at the Biker Fusion event, on Thursday night (March 5th) with all the proceeds going to Soldiers Angels.

Other events: Tuesday March 3rd. Limp Nickie Night with the next generation of builders. Be there to see them ride their outrageous machines and then be available to answer questions and photo opportunities. Also the same day, Russell Mitchell's Exile Tattoo Contest. Wednesday March 4th. Meet with the staff of Horse Back Street Chopper. Thursday March 5th, the 3rd "Biker Fusion Event" hosted by Shelly Rossmeyer, Ami James, Billy Lane & Christian Clayton. Limited admission tickets sold to the general public for a $50 donation to Soldier's Angels. Friday March 6th party in the VIP Dog Pound upstairs hosted by Ami James and Christian Clayton with the Love Hate Choppers.
